What it means to be a Stilton Strider:

1. Respect Leaders – They volunteer their time and plan sessions for you. Listen to safety instructions
2. Be Courteous – Share paths with others. Run single file when needed and thank those who give way
3. Support Each Other – Don't leave anyone behind, especially out of town. Help others get home safely
4. Own Your Safety – Dress appropriately and alert others to risks
5. Health Awareness – Bring medication if needed and inform others of any conditions
6. Be Visible – Wear hi-vis and reflective gear in the dark
7. Be Kind – Respect all members in person and online. Welcome newcomers
8. Celebrate Others – Acknowledge achievements of other members and clubs
9. Follow Race Rules – Don't swap race numbers. Fill in medical info and emergency contacts
10. Car Share – Especially for busy events with limited parking
11. Speak Up – Report concerns to a Welfare Officer, Committee member, or run leader
12. Help the Committee – Pay dues, complete surveys, give feedback, volunteer—and have fun!
