What it means to be a Stilton Strider:

- Respect Leaders – They volunteer their time and plan sessions for you. Listen to safety instructions
- Be Courteous – Share paths with others. Run single file when needed and thank those who give way
- Support Each Other – Don't leave anyone behind, especially out of town. Help others get home safely
- Own Your Safety – Dress appropriately and alert others to risks
- Health Awareness – Bring medication if needed and inform others of any conditions
- Be Visible – Wear hi-vis and reflective gear in the dark
- Be Kind – Respect all members in person and online. Welcome newcomers
- Celebrate Others – Acknowledge achievements of other members and clubs
- Follow Race Rules – Don't swap race numbers. Fill in medical info and emergency contacts
- Car Share – Especially for busy events with limited parking
- Speak Up – Report concerns to a Welfare Officer, Committee member, or run leader
- Help the Committee – Pay dues, complete surveys, give feedback, volunteer—and have fun!
